

13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty

Revised October 14, 2025

Next Scheduled Review: October 14, 2030

Procedure Statement

Undergraduate students at East Texas A&M University (University) are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. Faculty and staff are expected to uphold and support student integrity and honesty by maintaining conditions that encourage and enforce academic honesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty (see definitions). In addition, F-1 and J-1 international students must comply with the Student Exchange Visitor Program regulations related to their visa status.

This procedure outlines the process regarding academic dishonesty as it relates to undergraduate students.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1 RECORD KEEPING

The Provost's Office will maintain the centralized database for tracking charges and adjudication of academic dishonesty related to undergraduate students. All charges of academic dishonesty pertaining to undergraduate students should be reported to the Provost's Office.

2 CHARGE OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

- 2.1 The faculty or staff member who suspects an undergraduate student of academic dishonesty is responsible for conferring with the Academic Department Head in which the alleged incident occurred and for initiating disciplinary proceedings.
- 2.2 Once a charge of academic dishonesty has been made, the student may not drop the class until the academic dishonesty process has been completed. If a student withdraws from the University while a charge of academic dishonesty is pending, he/she will be blocked from re-enrolling until the matter is resolved using this procedure.
- 2.3 The faculty or staff member must complete the Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty Form and submit the form to the Provost's Office and provide a copy to the student, student's major Department Head, and Academic Dean as soon as is practicable, preferably within ten (10) business days of discovery of the alleged incident. The faculty or staff member must include all documentation, such as copies of exams, papers, or other relevant evidence, and retain all originals.

- 2.4 If the Provost's Office determines that the student has a previous finding of academic dishonesty on file, the process will immediately be transferred to the jurisdiction of the Academic Dean. (See section 2.8)
- 2.5 If the Provost's Office informs the faculty or staff member that the incident is a first offense, the student accepts responsibility for the charge, and the student and faculty or staff member agree on the penalty, assessment of the penalty concludes the disciplinary action.
- 2.6 The faculty member must send the records of the penalty by submitting the Faculty/Staff Adjudication of First Offense of Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty Form to the Provost's Office, Academic Dean, and Department Head as soon as practicable, preferably within five (5) business days of the agreement.

2.7 First Offenses

- 2.7.1 The most common penalty imposed by a faculty member for a first violation is an "F" in the course. Less severe penalties may be imposed if the circumstances warrant. Examples of lesser penalties include:
- 2.7.1.1 A grade reduction for the course
 - 2.7.1.2 A zero on the assignment
 - 2.7.1.3 A requirement to participate in extra requirements or training
 - 2.7.1.4 Some combination of these
- 2.7.2 A student who disagrees with the charge or any of the above penalties for a first offense, is entitled to appeal in writing to the Department Head, and then to the Academic Dean. The decision of the Academic Dean regarding the student's appeal of a first offense is final. The Academic Dean must include the decision on the Student's Appeal of First Offense of Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty Form, submit the form and a copy of the records of the appeal for the first offense to the Provost's Office as soon as practicable, preferably within five (5) business days of the appeal decision.
- 2.7.3 If the faculty member believes the first infraction is serious enough to warrant a more severe penalty than those listed in section 2.7.1, the faculty or staff member must include the infraction information on the Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty Form submitted to the Provost's Office. The student will be notified in writing of the charges by the Provost's Office, and the case will be referred to the Academic Dean for further adjudication through the hearing process (see section 3). More severe penalties, including separation (suspension or expulsion) from the University, may be imposed by the Academic Dean if the facts and circumstances, as determined by the Academic Dean via the hearing process (see section 3), warrant such penalties.

2.8 Repeat Offenses

When an alleged violation is reported to the Provost's Office and it is determined that the student has a previous violation on record, the case must be referred to the Academic Dean for further adjudication. A second offense may result in separation (suspension or expulsion) from the University. The Academic Dean adjudicates all such cases via the hearing process in section 3 and may impose less severe sanctions if the circumstances warrant.

2.9 Notification of Charges

The student will be notified in writing of the charges by the Provost's Office. A copy of the notification will be sent to the Department Head, Academic Dean, and faculty or staff member. The student will be provided with a link to this procedure.

- 2.10 Unless the charge is resolved by the mutual agreement of the student and faculty or staff member, the Academic Dean will schedule a hearing. Advance notice of the time, place, and date of the hearing will be provided to the student accused of academic dishonesty, the faculty or staff member making the allegation, and the Department Head.
- 2.11 The Academic Dean will convene an Academic Dishonesty Hearing Panel consisting of three faculty members from within the college. The Academic Dean will be the hearing officer.
- 2.12 At least five (5) business days prior to the hearing, all parties must notify the Academic Dean in writing of the names of their witnesses, if any, and the subject of their testimony. The student must submit to the Academic Dean a copy of all documents he/she intends to present at the hearing at least five (5) business days prior to the hearing. Upon request, the Academic Dean will make the information and documents available to the parties.
- 2.13 The University will create a single verbatim audio recording of all academic dishonesty hearings. Deliberations will not be recorded. The audio recording will be the property of the University. As an education record, the student has the right to review the recording.
- 2.14 The student will be afforded an opportunity to state informally or present information in support of his/her case, including mitigating circumstances.
- 2.15 The student has the right to hear evidence and ask questions of witnesses either directly or through the hearing officer.
- 2.16 All hearings will be closed to the public.

If an accused student is notified of the hearing and fails to appear at the Academic Dishonesty hearing, all available information will be presented, considered, and a decision may be made. The Academic Dishonesty Hearing Panel may accommodate concerns for the personal safety, well-being, and/or fears of confrontation of the complainant, accused student, and/or other witnesses during the hearing. There is no entitlement to these accommodations, and the Academic Dean will make the determination. The Academic Dean will also make reasonable accommodations to provide access for students with disabilities.

- 2.17 During deliberations, Academic Dishonesty Hearing Panel members first identify whether the student is or is not responsible for an academic dishonesty violation. If the student is found to be responsible for a violation, the Hearing Panel deliberates and decides upon appropriate sanctions. A majority vote by the committee members is necessary for a decision.
- 2.18 The Academic Dishonesty Hearing Panel shall submit the Hearing Adjudication of Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty Form to the Provost's Office, with all documents presented in the hearing and the tape or digital record.
- 2.19 The Provost's Office will inform the student in writing of the Academic Dishonesty Hearing Panel decision (as soon as practicable), preferably within five (5) university business days. A copy of the notification will be sent to the Department Head, Academic Dean, and faculty or staff member.

3 APPEAL OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 3.1 Within five (5) business days of the Academic Dishonesty Hearing Panel's decision, the student may file a written appeal for review with the Provost. The appeal must be in writing and specifically address the issues to be reviewed.
- 3.2 There are three (3) bases for appeal. At least one of the below must be the basis for an appeal:
 - 3.2.1 Substantial new evidence was not available at the time of the original hearing: To consider new information, sufficient to alter a decision or other relevant facts not brought out in the original hearing, because such information and/or facts could not have been known to the student appealing at the time of the original hearing.
 - 3.2.2 A violation of due process rights: To determine whether the original hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and evidence presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the accused student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and present a rebuttal of the allegations.
 - 3.2.3 The finding of responsibility is inconsistent with the facts presented in the hearing: To determine whether the decision reached regarding the accused student was based on a preponderance of the evidence, that is, whether the facts in the case were sufficient to establish that an academic dishonesty violation occurred.
- 3.3 The Provost's Office will review the appeal. If either party has requested an appearance or is requested to appear by the Provost's Office, then both parties must be informed. Because the case was heard by a peer group, the intent of the review is neither to modify the sanction nor to substitute the judgment of the Provost's Office for that of the Academic Dishonesty Hearing Panel, which heard the case, or hear new or additional facts on the case. The intent of this review is to ensure that the college hearing and judgment were not arbitrary, capricious, or discriminatory, did not violate the due process of the accused, and did not violate the concepts of fair play to both parties. The Provost's Office must notify all parties of the decision. A finding of discrimination will be referred under University Rule 08.01.01.R2.

3.4 Actions which the Provost's Office may take:

- 3.4.1 The Provost's Office may conclude that one or more of the basic concepts involved in a fair hearing at the college level were violated and return the case to the college for another hearing with a different panel; or
- 3.4.2 If, in a rare case, the Provost's Office feels that another hearing in the same college would not result in a fair hearing, the Provost may send the case to another college with the disciplinary expertise to hold a fair hearing in accordance with the above hearing process and resubmission for the Provost's Office's procedural review; or
- 3.4.3 The Provost's Office may approve the actions and conclusions of the college hearing panel and see that the judgment is enforced. The procedural review is the final institutional step in matters of academic dishonesty.
- 3.4.4 The Provost's Office will inform the student in writing of the appeal decision. A copy of the notification will be sent to the Department Head, Academic Dean, and faculty or staff member.

3.5 Final jurisdiction of undergraduate student appeals is with the Provost's Office.

4 DISCIPLINARY ACTION PENDING APPEAL

Following the notification of intent to appeal and pending the appeal results, any disciplinary action taken by the faculty member or staff or Academic Dean will be postponed until the appeal process is complete, unless the University has determined a case involving suspension or expulsion that the continued presence on campus of the charged student poses a continuing danger to persons or property, or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process.

5 LIMITS PER CASE

Students are limited to one appeal per case filed against him/her.

Definitions

Academic dishonesty includes the commission of any of the following acts. This listing is not, however, exclusive of any other acts that may reasonably be called academic dishonesty.

Clarification is provided for each definition by listing some prohibited behaviors.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE: East Texas A&M University acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, Chatbots, or other software that have the capacity to generate text or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course. Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism). Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided, the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.

ABUSE AND MISUSE OF ACCESS AND UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS: Students may not abuse or misuse computer access or gain unauthorized access to information in any academic exercise.

CHEATING: Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, notes, study aids, or other devices or materials in any academic exercise. Unauthorized materials may include anything or anyone that gives a student assistance and has not been specifically approved in advance by the instructor.

COMPLICITY: Intentionally or knowingly helping, or attempting to help, another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.

FABRICATION: Making up data or results, and recording or reporting them; submitting fabricated documents.

FALSIFICATION: Manipulating research materials, equipment, or processes, or changing or omitting data or results such that the research is not accurately represented in the research record.

FORGERY: Making a fictitious document, or altering an existing document, with the intent to deceive or gain advantage.

MULTIPLE SUBMISSIONS: Submitting substantial portions of the same work (including oral reports) for credit more than once without authorization from the instructor of the class for which the student submits the work.

PLAGIARISM: The appropriation of another person's ideas, processes, results, or words without giving appropriate credit.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING GROUP PROJECTS: If someone in a group commits academic misconduct, the entire group could be held responsible for it as well. It is important to document clearly who contributes what parts to the joint project, to know what group members are doing, and how they are acquiring the material they provide.

UNIVERSITY RULES ON RESEARCH: Students involved in conducting research and/or scholarly activities at the University must also adhere to standards set forth in 15.99.03.R1 Ethics in Research and Scholarship.

VIOLATION OF DEPARTMENTAL OR COLLEGE RULES: Students may not violate any departmental or college rule relating to academic matters.
