

Curriculum Vita
January 2026

Instructor: Dr. Cristina González

Academic Department: Literature & Languages

University Address: Literature & Languages
David Talbot Hall
East Texas A&M University
PO Box 3011
Commerce, TX 75429-3011

Office Phone: 214-356-9822

University Email Address: Cristina.gonzalez@tamuc.edu

EDUCATION
------------------

Doctor of Education—Leadership, Learning, & Organizational Change
Baylor University 2022

Master of Arts—Modern and Classical Languages
Texas A&M University 1993

Bachelor of Science—Health Education
Texas A&M University 1991

TEACHING EXPERIENCE
----------------------------

2022-present, Adjunct Professor of Spanish, East Texas A&M University, Commerce, TX

2023-present, Spanish Teacher & Senior Class Dean, Greenhill School, Addison, TX

2021-2025, Adjunct Spanish Professor, University of North Texas at Dallas, Dallas, TX

2011-2019, Program Coordinator & Assistant Professor, Office of Undergraduate Education and Spanish Department, University of Texas at Dallas, Dallas, TX

2000-2011, Assistant Professor & Director of Admission, University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas, Department of Physician Assistant Studies

PUBLICATIONS
---------------------

Hooker, R, González, CM, Jones PE, Measuring the impact of federal support for physician assistant education expansion into rural areas. In: Abstracts and Brief Reports. Perspective on Physician Assistant Education. 2002: 13(2). 109.

González, CM, Parma, LM. Medical Spanish and Physician Assistant Education: Usage, Barriers, and Need. Perspective on Physician Assistant Education; 2005, 16(1): 18-20.

RESEARCH GRANTS AND AWARDS
-----------------------------------

Assisted in many grant writing teams while at UT Southwestern, including HRSA and FIPSE grants.